Smithsonian Institution Summer 2026 Internship Opportunity For Recent Graduate

Description

Embark on a fascinating journey through time and knowledge at the prestigious Smithsonian Institution in Chantilly. Nestled amidst the captivating landscapes of Virginia, this iconic institution stands as a beacon of intellectual curiosity and cultural heritage. Explore a world of discovery as you immerse yourself in captivating exhibits, engage with experts, and unravel the mysteries of the past and present.

Responsibilities

1. Curate and Preserve: Play a vital role in the conservation and preservation of invaluable artifacts and collections, ensuring their longevity and accessibility for generations to come.
2. Exhibit Development: Contribute your creative vision to the development and design of captivating exhibitions, weaving together history, science, art, and culture.
3. Research and Documentation: Conduct in-depth research, contributing to scholarly publications, and meticulously documenting the rich history and significance of the Smithsonian's collections.
4. Public Engagement: Engage with visitors of all ages, providing enriching experiences through guided tours, workshops, lectures, and interactive programs.
5. Collaborative Endeavors: Collaborate with fellow experts, academics, and researchers from diverse backgrounds, fostering a vibrant intellectual community.

Qualifications

As a member of the Smithsonian Institution, you'll be part of an esteemed community that values diversity, intellectual curiosity, and a passion for knowledge. Ideal qualifications include:

- A bachelor's degree or higher in a relevant field such as history, anthropology, art, or museum studies.
- Demonstrated knowledge and understanding of collection management, exhibition design, and museum best practices.
- Strong research, analytical, and critical thinking skills to contribute to scholarly publications and historical documentation.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills to engage with diverse audiences and collaborate effectively with colleagues.

Experience

While prior experience working in a museum or cultural institution is highly desirable, the Smithsonian Institution also welcomes enthusiastic individuals with a fresh perspective and a drive to learn. Relevant experience may include:

- Curatorial work in a museum or gallery setting.
- Research or teaching experience in a related field.
